WITC INSTRUCTOR, JERRY RANALLO, NAMED HONORED EDUCATOR

(6/6/2015) Middleton - Jerry Ranallo, farm business and production management instructor at Wisconsin Indianhead Technical College, received the Honored Educator Award from the Wisconsin Association of Agricultural Educators at the WAAE Professional Development Conference in Middleton, Wis. from June 22-25, 2015.

Jerry has been an instructor at WITC for 23 years in the farm business program. This program provides continuing education to area producers in soils, crop production, livestock nutrition and management, and farm records and analysis.

WAAE is the professional association for agricultural educators in Wisconsin. Members include 295 middle school, high school, technical college and university educators. The focus of the association is to provide professional development, legislative support and educational resources for teachers to enhance their local agriculture education programs.

For more information about your local agriculture education programs and to find out how you can support agriculture in your community, please contact your local high school agriculture education instructor, WITC, or call WAAE at 262-224-7553.

Ranked fourth best two-year college in the nation by Washington Monthly magazine, WITC serves the educational and career needs of more than 25,000 residents of Northwestern Wisconsin each year. With multiple campuses, WITC offers career-focused associate degree programs, technical diplomas, short-term certificates, customized business training, and a wide array of courses for personal or career enrichment. WITC is a member of Wisconsin Technical College System and is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission. For more information, call 800.243.WITC or visit witc.edu. WITC is an Equal Opportunity/Access/Affirmative Action/Veterans/Disability Employer and Educator.

###