Program Overview

Persons interested in careers in Criminal Justice - Law Enforcement and Private Security will receive theoretical and practical information in the program. This field is becoming increasingly complex. Today’s employees must be trained to meet the challenges of our changing society. Criminal Justice - Law Enforcement courses and related general studies courses will prepare the student for a position as a law enforcement officer (state, municipal, or county), correctional officer, or for positions in retail, commercial, industrial security, and private investigation agencies. The program provides the student with necessary skills to perform as a police officer at municipal, county, or state governmental levels. The program also offers the officer already in active service an opportunity to improve skills and earn the associate degree.

Program-Specific Requirements

As a student in this program, you must:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Be a United States Citizen (unless employed by a Wisconsin State Agenc, i.e., Wisconsin State Patrol, Capitol Police, DNR, etc.)

Prior to enrolling in second year coursework, you must:

- Possess a valid Wisconsin driver’s license or other such valid operator’s permit recognized by the Wisconsin Department of Transportation as authorizing operation of a motor vehicle.
- Pass an oral interview
- Pass a physical examination
- Complete a criminal history records check. An unpardoned felony conviction or misdemeanor crime of domestic violence conviction will prohibit employment as a law enforcement officer.

ELECTIVES 6

PROGRAM REQUIREMENTS 68

This course requires a prerequisite and/or corequisite, and must be completed with a grade of “C” or better.

Appropriate placement score or Introduction to College Writing course required.

A grade of “C” or better is required for all core (10504XXX) courses.
10103128
Introduction to Computers - Windows - Credits: 1
Learners will gain knowledge about basic operations of a computer and the Windows operating system. Emphasis will be placed on file management and disk maintenance in a network environment.

10103129
Introduction to MS Office - Credits: 1
Learners will create, edit, view, and print basic documents using word processing, spreadsheets, database, and presentation software.

10504101
Introduction to Criminal Justice - Credits: 3
In this course, students will learn how the various elements of the criminal justice system relate, the role that law enforcement plays in a democracy, and the importance of professionalism in law enforcement. Students will also explore the historical perspectives of policing and the rewards and challenges of working in diverse communities.

10504105
Criminal Justice Ethics - Credits: 2
In this course, students will explore how professionalism, ethics, and moral standards relate to a law enforcement officer and practice using a code of behavior that embodies the ethical principles and obligations of the law enforcement code of ethics. Embedded in this code, students will learn about a decision-making model that identifies the characteristics of a good decision maker and incorporates ethical decision-making processes and tools to use in ethical dilemmas that may arise in the diverse communities in which they will work. PREREQUISITE: Admission to the Criminal Justice - Law Enforcement program.

Criminal Law - Credits: 4
In this course, students will identify the basic concepts of criminal law; analyze facts, circumstances, and situations to determine which, if any, crimes against persons, property, or involving drugs or alcohol have been committed. This course will also introduce the student to the process of breaking down crimes into elements so that the student will better understand the process of gathering evidence to prove each element beyond a reasonable doubt in the court process. Information will be provided that will allow the student to differentiate between those laws which are criminal and those laws which are “less than criminal”. PREREQUISITE: Admission to the Criminal Justice - Law Enforcement program.

10504117
Constitutional Law - Credits: 3
This course covers the structure of the criminal justice system, including criminal procedure. Students will learn the legal bases for law enforcement actions such as confessions and statements, arrest, use of force, and search and seizure, as well as the limits on law enforcement activity. Students will also learn the requirements under Wisconsin law for written law enforcement agency policies and procedures and why they are important in performing law enforcement tasks. PREREQUISITE: 10504113 Criminal Law.

10504118
Criminal Investigation Theory - Credits: 3
In this course, students will learn how to recognize, process, and preserve physical evidence; law enforcement’s response to a victim of crime including the dynamics of victimization, victim’s rights, and professional communication with law enforcement’s responsibilities to victims; and the statutory elements, impacts of, and strategies to investigate domestic crimes, child maltreatment, and sexual assault. PREREQUISITE: 10504113 Criminal Law.

10504121
Patrol Procedures - Credits: 4
This course will deal with the area of law enforcement uniform patrol practices and techniques including instruction into the tactical area of vehicle contacts, which is one of the areas for law enforcement recruit certification in Wisconsin. Students will prepare for working as a uniform officer by exploring observation and perception, police communications, vehicle patrol, responding to frequently handled calls as well as unusual calls. PREREQUISITE: Admission to the Criminal Justice – Law Enforcement program.

10504131
Traffic Theory - Credits: 3
In this course, students will become familiar with Wisconsin’s traffic laws and ordinances, including those related to operator licensing and vehicle registration and equipment. Students will learn to enforce these laws, including learning to properly complete Wisconsin Uniform Traffic Citations and (as needed) to direct and control traffic effectively. Students will also learn the steps to take as first-in officer to stabilize and manage a complex scene, following the RESPOND (report, evaluate, stabilize, preserve, normalize, and document/debrief) model, investigate traffic accidents, take appropriate enforcement actions, prepare accident reports, and manage accident scenes.

10504135
Juvenile Law - Credits: 3
In this course, students will learn the laws and procedures that affect juveniles, including those related to taking a juvenile into custody. The course will include a look at the historical development of the juvenile justice system, both in Wisconsin and on a national basis. A brief look at the theories of juvenile delinquency will be a part of the class so that the student better understands the strategies behind the juvenile justice process and the strong history of rehabilitation that is a part of the Wisconsin juvenile justice system. PREREQUISITE: 10504113

10504143
Police Report Writing - Credits: 3
In this course, students will learn how to write a wide variety of law enforcement reports to accurately and fairly convey necessary information for use by investigators, prosecutors, and the public. This course will involve a significant “hands-on” approach where the student will produce finished police reports similar to the common narrative styles that are most commonly used in significant police contacts today. Issues of spelling, grammar, sentence structure and clarity will all be stressed in this course. PREREQUISITES: 10504113 Criminal Law, 10801171 Business English, and 10801195 Written Communication.

10504160
Community Policing - Credits: 3
In this course, students will learn about the resources available in their communities to assist law enforcement in their community and principles of crime prevention. Students will explore evolving police strategies, activities, and attitudes that build effective law enforcement and community relationships, and the use of problem-oriented policing.

10504170
Introduction to Corrections - Credits: 3
The course examines state and county correction systems, theories of corrections, historical development, alternatives to incarceration, probation and parole, and how law enforcement and corrections work together in the criminal justice system.

10504180
Professional Communications - Credits: 3
In this course, students will learn the role of communication in law enforcement and will develop and apply specific communication skills and the strategies in a variety of simulated situations including dealing with individuals in crisis management situations. Students will also explore roles and communication strategies in court, including presenting effective, professional testimony. PREREQUISITES: 10504113 Criminal Law

10801171
Business English - Credits: 2
This course will involve a significant “hands-on” approach where the student will produce finished police reports similar to the common narrative styles that are most commonly used in significant police contacts today. Issues of spelling, grammar, sentence structure and clarity will all be stressed in this course.

10801195
