Dietary Manager
30-312-9 Technical Diploma (less than one-year)

Program Overview
The Dietary Manager program will train students to manage food service personnel, food supplies, kitchen equipment, food production, and nutrition aspects of food service. This program provides skills beyond the level of dietary assistant. As dietary managers, graduates will be members of the dietetic team under the supervision of a registered dietitian. Students need to complete their occupational experience in a hospital, nursing home, or other pre-approved dietary setting. Students completing the Dietary Manager Occupational Experience course may need to complete site forms. Further information can be obtained from the instructor.

Program Outcomes
Employers will expect graduates of this program to:
• Use nutrition principles to plan, prepare, and evaluate menus to meet clients’ dietary needs
• Apply basic principles of purchasing, receiving, storage, and inventory of food and supplies
• Collect nutritional assessment data using interviewing skills

Employability essentials and indicators will also be addressed to develop personal awareness, career effectiveness, and professionalism. See page 5 of the college catalog for a list of employability essentials and indicators.

Career Outlook
Dietary Manager graduates are in demand because of their ability to provide and assess nutrition care service. Opportunities for employment exist in many service industries including hospitals, long-term care facilities, school food service, assisted living facilities, correctional facilities, and similar food service operations. The positions available to students after graduation are:
• Certified Dietary Manager
• Dietary Manager
• Food Service Supervisor

This program is accredited by the Association of Nutrition and Foodservice Professionals (ANFP), and students are eligible to complete a certifying exam for registered dietary managers.
