Students are introduced to the hardware and software components of computer systems and electronic medical records.

10520103 Ethics in Human Services - Credits: 3
This course explores ethical, legal, and professional issues facing the human services worker. It is designed to teach a process of ethical decision-making and to increase awareness of the complexities in practice. Students are introduced to the current state and federal statutes, regulations, and judicial decisions that govern the professional practice in human services. Standards, code of ethics, clients’ rights, and confidentiality are emphasized. PREREQUISITE: Established score on Reading placement assessment or COREQUISITE: 10538104 Introduction to Reading.

10520112 Family Systems - Credits: 3
This course focuses on issues related to families and family functioning relevant to the human services field. Major areas of focus will include child maltreatment, domestic violence, and addiction, with emphasis on relevant helping skills and services.

10544100 Communication of Aging - Credits: 3
Develop effective communication strategies and supportive interview techniques that enhance rapport and relationships with aging populations. Apply ethical principles, standards and boundaries that acknowledge self-determination.

10544101 Social Gerontology - Credits: 3
Explore aging in respect to social roles and processes. Topics include history of aging, demographics, family relationships, social supports, economics, retirement, loss, poverty and politics of aging.

10544102 Psychological Aspects of Aging - Credits: 3
Recognize how experience and history affect the value and societal expectations of each generation. Understand diversity among older adults including, but not limited to, race, ethnicity, culture; sexual orientation; and physical, cognitive and developmental disabilities.

10544103 Gerontology Fieldwork 1 - Credits: 2
Examine the scope, values, and principles of the gerontology profession. Coursework introduces the typical roles and duties of aging services professionals. Students assess their own motivations, attitudes, and interests. In addition to the regular classroom hours, observation and fieldwork in a community-based setting working with older adults is required. Students must complete or have on file current, valid Background Information Disclosure (BID) and Caregiver Background Check (annual Wisconsin and Minnesota) forms, as part of this course. PREREQUISITE: 10544108 Developing the Gerontology Professional.

10544104 Physical Aspects of Aging - Credits: 3
Analyze normal and pathological changes occurring in the aging human body with special emphasis on age-related chronic diseases. Topics addressed include analysis of biological theories of aging, cultural/ethnic influence on aging pathologies, and other factors impacting the aging process.

10544105 Alzheimer’s and Dementia - Credits: 3
Examine the signs, symptoms and stages of Alzheimer’s and other forms of dementia and how these diseases affect physiology and brain function. This course focuses on the principles of communicating and providing care to individuals with memory loss and confusion while learning the best practices for dealing with behavior changes, challenges with the activities of daily living, and strategies to assist caregivers.

10544106 Healthy Aging - Credits: 3
Investigate practices that promote healthy aging including nutrition, physical activity, prevention practices, and commonly prescribed medications for the older adult. Emphasis will focus on the “well” elderly population and practices identified to address current aging trends.

10544107 Death and Dying - Credits: 3
Explore societal, cultural, and personal views of death, dying, and bereavement. Examine losses experienced during the course of aging beyond the physical and emotional process of death and dying. Determine strategies for healthy transitions in coping with loss.

10544108 Developing the Gerontology Professional - Credits: 3
Examine the various roles of the aging services professional and the contexts in which they work. Apply relationship building, communication, ethical standards, self-care planning and practices, documentation, and other related skills to case studies and real life situations. Function as an interdisciplinary team member addressing the complex needs of aging adults. PREREQUISITE: Successful completion of 15 credits of 105201XX or 105441XX coursework.

10544109 Gerontology Fieldwork 2 - Credits: 2
Refine and expand skills acquired in Gerontology Fieldwork 1, through continued on-the-job training. In addition to the regular classroom hours, fieldwork in a community-based setting working with older adults is required. Students must complete or have on file current, valid Background Information Disclosure (BID) and Caregiver Background Check (annual Wisconsin and Minnesota) forms, as part of this course. COREQUISITE: 10544103 Gerontology Fieldwork 1 and successful completion or enrollment in all other core program courses.

10544110 Programs of Aging Services - Credits: 3
Explore the wide spectrum of programs and services available to older adults that address a variety of physical, mental, emotional, social, financial, legal, spiritual, and recreational needs. Examine social policy as it relates to aging and available federal funding for the aging consumer including community resources, eligibility criteria, and how to access and coordinate services. Additional topics include supplementing social networking and enhancing mental health functioning.

10544111 Legal and Financial Issues of Aging - Credits: 3
Analyze legal and financial concepts and structures including Power of Attorney for health care, finance, guardianships, trusts, reallocation of assets, spending down, Medicare/Medicaid benefits, supplemental insurance, Social Security, elder abuse/neglect, financial exploitation, and relevant governmental policies. Apply knowledge through advocacy to benefit aging adults on local, state and federal levels.
