

Children in School

Children are restricted from attending classes or labs (shops, computer labs, study skills, lectures, shop, individualized study, etc.). Students are not allowed to leave children unattended while in class without providing adult supervision. Children who are visiting the campus outside of class time must be under adult supervision at all times.