

Class Cancellations

Courses that have fewer than 10 enrolled students may be canceled at the discretion of the academic dean. Student Services will notify students by telephone, e-mail, and/or mail if a class is canceled prior to its first meeting or the faculty member will inform the students at the first session if low enrollment forces cancellation.

Class cancellation announcements will be posted on campus outside of classrooms if a faculty member is ill or has other professional responsibilities.