

Transportation

Most WITC students commute to the campus by use of private automobiles, either individually or in car pools. Many students commute to campus from neighboring communities. The Student Services office assists in identifying potential rides when requests are made. Current bus schedules are also available in the Student Services office.