Course Competencies describe the major skills/knowledge students must master to pass a course. Assessment of course competencies will reflect whether or not students are able to adequately master the content of the course.

General Studies courses will be assessed each year according to an identified schedule with results being posted on a yearly basis.

Program course assessments will be ongoing with results being used to improve student learning in the classroom.