1	V	H	11/9	C	1	When the Hayward Center first started, one person thought there were more credit offerings at that location. We have lost a lot of credit courses at WITC-Hayward. Does this prevent any growth at the Hayward location? It's a great system, but it was suggested that the community might want a little more offered at WITC-Hayward.
2	V	H	11/9	C	1	At one point WITC-Hayward used to be the source for GEDs in cooperation with the high schools. [It was noted that we still are the source for the GEDs.] Continue to offer GED services.
3	V	H	11/9	C	4	Is it perception or image that the public doesn't know about the GED being offered at WITC-Hayward? Does WITC need to market this a little bit more?
4	V	H	11/9	C	4	One person said they used to get a lot of information (class schedules, etc.) but they don't anymore. [He owns several radio stations and would like to help us.] *4, 6

6	V	H	11/9	C	1	A part-time adjunct instructor and student would love to see more general education courses provided over IP video (ex. Introduction to Sociology and Introduction to Psychology), noting that it seems like WITC-Hayward has lost those offerings. He loves the IP video format as feels like he's face-to-face. The system is in place, let's use it.
7	V	H	11/9	C	1	For grant-specific needs, one organization needs a quick turnaround time and for WITC to be able to offer the courses that are needed. *1, 2
8	V	H	11/9	C	2	For grant-specific needs, one organization needs a quick turnaround time and for WITC to be able to offer the courses that are needed. *1, 2
9	V	H	11/9	C	2	Are the courses being offered pertinent to what the employers need in their communities? We need to be able to offer courses locally.
10	V	H	11/9	C	2	Thanks to Lynn Fitch for using the Chamber Newsletter and press releases to promote WITC courses. *2, 4

11	V	H	11/9	C	4	Thanks to Lynn Fitch for using the Chamber Newsletter and press releases to promote WITC courses. *2, 4
12	V	H	11/9	C	1	One person asked if it was alarming that "two-thirds of the 2009 WITC graduates were female". He asked if there should be more courses offered for males.
13	V	H	11/9	C	1	It was suggested that WITC expand Nursing program courses to WITC-Hayward.
14	V	H	11/9	C	5	The tremendous growth that WITC has experienced and maintained is unprecedented. Is WITC going to get to the point where they are too big and can't take any more students, where are we going to go?
15	V	H	11/9	C	1	It was recommended that WITC offer the GED services and other courses for the Drug Court program . This might be a nice source of students for WITC.
16	V	H	11/9	C	6	GED services are offered at WITC, LCO, and the high schools. Should we be competing? [It was noted that non-traditional students would not go back to the high schools to get their GED. Our instructor is at LCO.]
17	V	H	11/9	C	4	Is there a recruitment opportunity for WITC to reach out to those who are interested in going into the military (there are too many people interested in the military right now).
18	V	H	11/9	C	1	It's important for the credits that WITC offers to transfer/ladder into the healthcare field (4-year Colleges and Universities).
19	V	H	11/9	C	1	What is WITC looking at in the future relative to other industries that are booming (ex. Computer Technology and Teaching; what is the future of WITC? [Renewable Energy, Biomass-Wood Pulp, Fuels, Green Technology] *1, 5

21	V	H	11/9	C	1	There is a need for dispatcher training (core/basic program) geared out of Hayward (centrally located from Ashland and Rice Lake). There is an interest in Sawyer County for this type of training.

22	V	H	11/9	C	1	Look at culinary, tourism, and golf management courses since Hayward is a tourist area. (Transfer to UW-Stout's Hotel, Restaurant, and Tourism Management program).
23	V	H	11/9	C	6	Wow! One person noted that he looks so forward to the level of instruction that he is getting at WITC from Deb Miller, Chris Saxild, and Dr. David Stanley!
24	V	H	11/9	C	6	One person noted that Bambi Pattermann and Lynn Fitch are two of the top people at WITC.
25	V	H	11/9	C	4	Improve media relations in Hayward.
