3rd Annual
Final Affairs Conference
A Guide to Arranging Your Personal and Legal Affairs

FRIDAY, APRIL 29, 2016
8:00AM-3:30PM
WITC-NEW RICHMOND

Adoray Home Health & Hospice, along with WITC and New Richmond Community Education are excited to announce a wonderful opportunity that brings local residents and community experts together for a day of sharing and learning.

The 3rd Annual Final Affairs Conference is a day-long educational opportunity to help community members consider options, ask questions and explore issues regarding personal and legal decisions as they age.

REGISTER TODAY THROUGH NEW RICHMOND COMMUNITY EDUCATION at 715.243.7494 or newrichmond.k12.wi.us

Brought to you by
Benefits of attending the program

Understanding the importance of opening the end-of-life care conversation with family members and health care providers.

Receive valuable information and practical advice from local professionals.

Connect with community resources.

Presentations include

An elder law attorney talks about legal concerns regarding wills and estate planning

A physician discusses DNR (do not resuscitate) & CPR

A panel of experts share the importance of talking to loved ones about their desires and wishes for health care and offer advice on Advance Care Planning

A funeral director presents on Life Celebrations and Remembrance Services as well as Pre-Arranging Plans

Dazed and Confused: Dementia can be bewildering. Learn what to be concerned about and when.

Receive information about care options to ensure living life to the fullest