*This class is an online offering. Instruction is delivered via the internet and accessed by you using a Web browser. You must have access to a computer and the Internet to participate in online courses. You may be required to purchase or have access to specific software for this course. Unless on campus, WITC does not provide access to the software. If you are registered for the course, you can purchase discounted software at <http://www.witc.edu/technology/software.htm>. WITC uses Blackboard™ as a course management system to deliver online classes. See the WITC online learning page at www.witc.edu/online/index.htm for further information. Books and other required materials need to be purchased prior to the start of class. For information, contact the WITC Bookstore that services online programming at 1-800-243-9482, ext 3148, or your local campus bookstore.

‡This class is offered using WITC's Interactive Television (ITV) network. In an ITV class, your instructor may be physically located at another location and teaching classes in several locations at the same time. An on-site facilitator may be present if you are at a location away from the course instructor. These classes require your attendance in the classroom!

→This class requires a specified amount of time online in addition to regularly scheduled face to face classroom hours. Actual online class participation is determined by you based on your schedule or as communicated by your instructor.

#When you register for the lecture section of this class, you are automatically registered in the lab section that meets at this location.

•A work-based learning class provides short-term work experience in which you receive training and gain experience in a specific field or career area. Work-based learning is supervised by an instructor, may be paid or unpaid, and may vary in hours and length.

ΔTravel to field work sites should be expected.

ΩThis class requires a specified amount of time online in addition to regularly scheduled face to face classroom hours. Actual online class participation is determined by you based on your schedule or as communicated by your instructor.

!!Plus one and a half hours online per week.
