

Northwest Wisconsin Career Prep Consortium Agenda

January 4, 2016

9 a.m. to 10 a.m.

ITV Meeting

- ▶ Participants: Jerry Walters, Jim Lee, Jim Erickson, Stephanie Erdmann, Cindy King, Brenda Kretzschmar, Barb Landstrom, John Will, Jen Siem
- ▶ Career Prep Updates
 - John Will gave details on a transition plan and share that the job description has been updated. The position will likely be posted by mid-January, to be filled by July 1.
 - Cindy gave an update regarding interim coverage.
 - Andrea Schullo will be working with ACPs (Academic and Career Planning), the Career Prep Grant (consortium meetings, dual credit activities, state meetings, career pathways Web site, Educator Externships, Counselor externships, etc.). Christy Roshell will be working with FTF (Facilitating the Future, youth council meetings, and a number of academy activities). Cindy King will be working with grant expenditures, spend down, the grant update report, and the High School Relations Committee. Eric Lockwood and Brenda Kretzschmar will be working with the Manufacturing Countywide Meetings.
- ▶ Review of Grant Activities/Budget
 - Diva Tech was held early December. There were 42 student participants. John gave the welcome, students experienced trade and technical programs through hands-on activities, and concluded the day by touring Bretting Manufacturing.
 - Brenda Kretzschmar gave an overview of the ACP training held at CESA 11 in December. She said that schools are trying to be proactive related to getting ACP plans in place. The training was well attended. The pilot schools presented to the new schools. The plan is to have a second training in April at CESA 11, followed up by training at FTF this summer. It has been decided to replace the Spring Counselor Workshop this spring with ACP training. The plan is to resume the Spring Counselor Workshop in spring 2017.

- The FTF brochure is in process and will feature many excellent offerings this summer.
- Barb Landstrom reviewed the 2015-2016 Career Prep Budget that was distributed prior to the meeting.
- Jim Lee made motion to approve and Brenda Kretzschmar seconded the motion. All in attendance were in favor and none opposed.
- The next meeting is currently scheduled for Wednesday, April 27. Conflicts were identified so the date may change. Jen Siem will check calendars and will be in touch soon regarding the April date.